

Volume 55 Issue 2, June 2025

Special Issue: Regimes of Exclusion and Rights Discourse: India and Its Diasporas

Guest Editors: Jinee Lokaneeta and Sangay Mishra

Introduction

Rethinking Rights in Regimes of Exclusion

Jinee Lokaneeta

Sangay Mishra

Articles

Prison Matters: On Women, Prisons, and the Pandemic

Pratiksha Baxi

Locked-In and Locked-Down Lives: Women's Carceral Recollections of Quotidian and Pandemic Times

Sharmila Purkayastha

Routine Police Violence and the Pandemic: A Call for Rethinking Citizenship and Rights

Jinee Lokaneeta

Guillermina Seri

Uneven Land: Territorial Differentiation in Citizenship Law in India

Darshana Mitra

The Overseas Citizens of India: Law, Lives, and Institutional Practices

Anupama Roy

Ujjwal Kumar Singh

Automatic Termination of Citizenship Under Indian Law: How India's Legal Structure Makes Citizens Stranger to Their Own Motherland

Saahas Arora

New Cartographies of Belonging and Exclusion in the United Arab Emirates

Manal Nadeem

Neha Vora

Book Reviews

Suchitra Vijayan and Francesca Recchia, How Long Can the Moon Be Caged? Voices of Indian Political Prisoners

Saumya Dadoo

Rupal Oza, Semiotics of Rape: Sexual Subjectivity and Violation in Rural India

Neetika Vishwanath

Sahana Ghosh, A Thousand Tiny Cuts: Mobility and Security Across the Bangladesh–India Borderlands

Mahuya Bandyopadhyay

Soibam Haripriya (Ed.), Homeward: Towards a Poetics of Space

Reeju Ray

Andrea Wright, Between Dreams and Ghosts: Indian Migration and Middle Eastern Oil

Tanvir Aeijaz

Deba Ranjan and Biswapriya Kanungo, Bharatare Daman Aina: Atita O Barttaman [Repressive Laws in India: Past and Present]

Bijaya Kumar Bohidar